Something about me

- Regarding my education, I have pursued my dual post-graduation in Design. I have been working as a Sr. UX Designer, at Philips India for the last 4+ years. I have overall 6+ years of experience in design.
- Our family is based out of New Delhi, and we live in Bangalore with my mother and younger brother.
- I love travelling and going outdoors. I am passionate about photography and driving. I try to stay positive in life in all situations. My family believes in simple living. A kind heart, with a bright smile, would be an apt way to describe me. Simple, not too extravagant. Love for food, old school Music is ♡. Still a child inside, going through life 1 day at a time. Simple Pleasures: Long drives, FRIENDS
- I am seeking a down-to-earth and responsible friend and partner, who can go hand in hand, values relationships, family life and her own goals in life as well.
- I value trust, honesty, loyalty. I believe in forgiving and letting things go.
